

CODE OF CONDUCT

Everyone at Acme Technologies Pvt Ltd is expected to act with honesty, respect and care. This code applies to employees, interns and contractors, at work and at work events.

1. Respect at work

Treat colleagues, candidates, clients and vendors with respect. Discrimination on the basis of gender, caste, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation or any other personal trait is not tolerated.

2. Conflicts of interest

Tell HR about any outside job, business interest or relationship that could affect your decisions at work. Do not take part in hiring or buying decisions involving relatives.

3. Gifts and hospitality

Gifts from clients or vendors worth more than 2,000 rupees must be declared to HR and may have to be returned. Cash gifts are never accepted.

4. Confidential information and data privacy

Protect company, client and employee data. Personal data such as salary, PAN, bank details and health information is shared only with people who need it for their work. Report suspected data leaks to the security team within 24 hours.

5. Use of company assets

Laptops, accounts and other assets are for work. Install only approved software. Return all assets on the last working day.

6. Raising a concern

Concerns about fraud, safety or breaches of this code can be raised with the manager, with HR, or anonymously through the ethics helpline. Nobody who raises a concern in good faith will face retaliation.

7. Disciplinary process

Breaches are investigated by HR. Depending on the outcome, action can range from a written warning to termination. The employee is heard before any decision.
